Skiers pleased with response to proposal

A proposal that would enhance the cross-country ski facilities in the Haliburton Highlands has been greeted with favourable response by Ontario government officials.

A delegation representing the Haliburton Highlands Nordic Ski Association met with the Assistant Deputy Minister for Community Programs, Sports and Recreation Bob Secord Tuesday morning. Spokesman for the delegation, Maple Sands Resort owner Curtis Eastmure said the meeting went well. "We talked about our ideas and proposal for about an hour and a half," Eastmure told The Times Tuesday afternoon. "They asked a number of questions which indicated they were interested in the proposal. I felt it was a very positive response," the spokesman added.

Included in the delegation was Art Ward, the owner of Wig-A-Mog Inn, and Mike Extall, a highly respected authority on cross-country skiing.

The proposal which was presented to the Ministry of Tourism and Recreation representatives involved the development of a linked cross-country trail system which would serve the recreational skier, provide a world cup competition course for races and training and a lodge to lodge ski system. The group's presentation said an estimated $263,000 would be required to create the 75 kilometre trail system for the Highlands.

In their report, the association representatives noted that trail development in areas which could serve the southern Ontario market, has fallen behind in the province. They pointed out that similar systems are now available in North Bay, Thunder Bay and Ottawa, but that their distance from the population centres of the province limits the amount of use they receive.

The association suggests that the terrain of the Haliburton Highlands is similar to that of the Laurentian country ski facilities for visitors. It also notes that land is available for the extension and linking of the existing trails. "It is apparent that the Haliburton Highlands area has all of the particular requirements needed to develop such a system, including strong local and regional support," the report points out.

Create jobs

It notes as well that the Highlands relies on tourism for a major share of its economic base and for the Mountains of Quebec where extensive trail systems have been developed. They proposed that existing private and public systems in areas such as the Leslie Frost Centre, various resorts, Stanhope Township, Snowdon Township, Lake Kashagawigamog and the developing Minden area trails could be used as bases for the network. This would create a trail system stretching from near Dorset and the edge of Algonquin Park south to Minden, Haliburton and Wilberforce.

The report notes that the Highlands are located within easy driving distance of the Toronto area and that a large number of area resorts are already providing cross-most part it is a seasonal industry. By adding this feature, which Eastmure described as "one of the most exciting things to happen in the Haliburton Highlands in a number of years," it would create off-season employment. The report says that the Haliburton Highlands has long been regarded as an area for outdoor activities and it would be only natural to extend that attraction into the winter months by the maintenance of an extensive ski trail network.

The costs estimated by the association in the report included $60,000 for program management and

Hydro changes could mean 7 jobs here

A proposal to re-organize several Ontario Hydro districts could mean an increase in staff for the Minden office. The plan, which would see the Orillia and Huntsville Hydro facilities eliminated or reduced has drawn a great deal of criticism in the communities concerned.

According to a spokesman for Ontario Hydro, Virginia Brand, the proposal under study would see the Orillia service office closed and the Huntsville operation reduced with adjacent districts absorbing some of the responsibility and manpower from these locations.

The proposal would mean that some 1800 Ontario Hydro customers, mostly in the northern portion of the county, would be served from the Minden office. They are currently served by the Huntsville office. The change would mean that seven staff members, in the line, customer service and forestry section, could be transferred to the Minden office.

The proposal has upset residents in the two Muskoka communities. Some 500 residents, councillors and employees reportedly attended a recent meeting in Orillia to voice their concern about the proposed changes.

The meeting had been called by Ontario Hydro to obtain public input on the changes. According to Brand, the utility will now consider the concerns presented at the meetings and reassess the original proposal. She said that impact studies will also be carried out in the communities affected by the changes.

Brand said the changes were being proposed to improve the cost efficiency of the utility's operation.

The Hydro spokesman said the proposal would be carried out over a number of years with the changes taking place in 1986. She was unable to say when Hydro's reassessment of the proposal, in light of the objections being raised, would be completed.

Eakins comments

Victoria - Haliburton MPP John Eakins has also voiced his concern about the changes. He has suggested that the changes will make it more difficult for rural residents to obtain services from the utility.

"Rural people need and deserve these services without the agony of having to travel many more miles than necessary," the MPP said in a press release. He suggested the move was, "...just another way to disregard and downplay the importance of rural Ontario."

Eakins said the changes would cause inconvenience

Other Mindens

Minden, Nebraska, U.S.A.

Last week Hilda Lange's column related the details of the Harold Warp Pioneer Village, located near Minden, Nebraska. This week we conclude the report.

The buildings were moved to Pioneer Village from all over Nebraska, so many visitors come especially to see a certain structure that may have been in their home town. Such a favourite is The People's Store, with its shelves full of all sorts of merchandise of the typical old fashioned general store.

Local people can identify with the Bloomington Land Office. This was the original government land office where the early settlers filed for homesteads. It is built of Kansas limestone and was moved block by block over 30 miles to Pioneer Village.

The Fire House contains all types of fire fighting equipment and also an old jail.

The Lowell Depot was moved to Minden from Lowell, Nebraska which was the western terminus of the Burlington Railroad from 1872 to 1882. New settlers arrived at this depot in cattle cars and boxcars and the same cars were used to ship range cattle back east. When the Lowell depot was being restored, there were seven layers of worn-out flooring found in it. In front of the depot stand a Baldwin steam locomotive built in 1889 and a caboose which people love to explore. There is also a Union Pacific windmill and one of the last water towers on the Burlington Railroad.

The one-room Grom School brings back memories to a lot of people as they sit at the desks and observe the original furnishings.

The sod house required 10 acres of sod to build and it took 5 men working 3 weeks. But it stands on the Village Green, completely furnished in pioneer style so that visitors can see how the early Nebraska settlers lived on the prairie.

In the china shop, women are captivated by the precious keepsakes of beautiful glassware, much of it brought west in covered wagons.

The first church built in Minden still has its original furnishings and services are conducted every Sunday during the summer.

Children love to ride the oldest steam powered merry-go-round in the United States. Both children and adults can ride for only 5 cents each just as the original sign says.

Buffalo Bill Cody's historic saddle can be seen in the original Pony Express station which once served as a relay station to the Black Hills. Of course, there has to be a Pony Express barn, and a blacksmith shop is needed as is a large livery stable.

One building houses the world's largest collection of antique farm tractors and trucks from the earliest to the latest. While the women are admiring the items in the china house, the men are usually found discussing antique farm machinery showing the evolution of plowing, cultivating, seeding, harvesting and threshing equipment.

The entire family can enjoy the building called Shops and Homes. Here are displayed kitchens, living rooms and bedrooms of 1830, 1860, 1910, 1930, 1960, and 1980. The shops include a music shop, doctor's office, drug store, barber shop, toy shop, jewellery and optician shop, shoe shop, harness shop, loom shop, print shop, broom factory, lawyer's office, furniture store, cabinet maker and cooperage. Visitors are always interested in watching the demonstrations of spinning and carding of wool, the making of rugs on an antique loom, the making of straw brooms and glass blowing. All of the craftsmen working at these pioneer trades are happy to talk with visitors and answer any questions.

The original barn was moved in from the Warp family homestead with the horse stalls, harness room and oat bin intact.

Everyone enjoys reminiscing in the home appliance building which houses refrigerators, washing machines, stoves, bath tubs and kitchen utensils.

The only building at Pioneer Village in which the items are not arranged in chronological order of their development is the hobby house. It is truly what the name says. It is a fun place showing collections of all types including trivets, pitchers, salt and pepper shakers, pipes, dolls, buttons and many other things.

Tourists do get hungry so there is also a snack bar on the Village Green. It's tempting to taste the pop corn at 10 cents a bag made in the old steam popper. Many visitors find that they want to spend more than one day touring the Harold Warp Pioneer Village and decide to spend the night at the modern Pioneer Motel located right next to the Village with a large campground and picnic area also available. Pioneer Restaurant is also a part of the Village complex and serves breakfast, dinner and supper to thousands of tourists. It is possible to visit Pioneer Village for as many consecutive days as one may wish on one admission fee, as over-night passes are issued on request.

Harold Warp's original purpose of showing future generations how our country was built, has indeed been accomplished. There are so many thousands of items on display that it is impossible to describe or even comprehend the magnitude. It is a priceless tribute to our pioneer heritage and Minden, Nebraska is pleased to be host to thousands of visitors from all over the world each year.

trail design fees, $110,000 for heavy machinery and trail grooming equipment, $40,000 for labour, $15,000 for trail signage, $5,000 for office rental, $3,000 for vehicle leasing, $25,000 for project planning, promotion and communications, and $5,000 miscellaneous.

Eastmure explained that while the figures were discussed, there was no mention at this point of how much the province might be asked to or be willing to contribute to the project. He suggested that the costs would be divided between the local government, the private sector and the province.

He noted that a number of Haliburton County municipalities have indicated their support for the program and have agreed to seek funding for trail development within their jurisdictions. He suggested that the use of municipally owned heavy equipment for trail construction could be another method of local involvement.

The provincial representatives have asked for another meeting with the delegation, saying they wished to have time to study the proposal and consider the options. A meeting has been set for two weeks from today, to consider the proposal further.

Katimavik: another day - another dollar

This week marked the end of a nine month Katimavik project in Minden. The program saw three groups of young people from various parts of Canada spend three months in this community. The project was sponsored by the municipality, with the participants working closely on a number of recreation oriented projects.

During their term in the federally sponsored project, the participants are paid one dollar per day, as well as their room and board. At the end of the nine month period they receive a lump sum payment of $1000.

While this project is coming to an end, the municipality has agreed to sponsor another. It will begin sometime in May.

Marian Jones of Prince George, British Columbia was a member of the last group to spend a rotation in Minden. She prepared the following look at the group's experiences in Katimavik.

As Katimavik 83 - 84 draws to a close, we the participants of Group 70 would like to reflect back and share some of our nine months with you.

The long haul began in Val d'Or, Quebec, then on to Oliver, British Columbia, with our last stop being here in Minden. It's been quite a challenge for all of us to adjust to a group life of 12.

It wasn't easy at first but once we got to know each other it wasn't hard to throw that first fistful of beach sand, or that glass of water, or short-sheeting the bed. Then it was on to hanging toy gorillas outside the bedroom window, drinking too much unfermented home-made beer and cramming 2 or 3 people into a bed made for one.

Then we were moved to a new location and had a change of seasons. We went from attacking the mailman to see who'd be the first to grab the mail box key each day, finding "Jaws" spiders in your bed. Then there was the great fun of flying down long, windy hills on bikes (that would soon be traded in for a pair of skis on a slope).

Then it snowed. Remember the snow couple "Romeo" & "Juliet" built at 11 p.m.? Remember who started the snowball fight which eventually moved into the house.

Then it was January and time to rotate again for the last time.

We went camping - in the snow?? Sure!!

The ice sculpture at the Minden Winter Carnival won first prize. (We loved and hated our work and supervisor at the same time).

Once again we foolishly attempted to downhill ski - this time at Sir Sam's.

Video weekends, boring weekends, Toronto weekends, billeting weekends... it was all part of life as a Katimavictim and now it's over.

Gone will be the meals and dishes for 12.

Gone will be the camaraderie of meal-time talk.

Gone will be the laundry for a dozen people.

No more Katimavan.

No more bed-time music and late-night chit-chat.

But most of all, no more waiting for the bathroom!!

We started off as strangers but we're parting as friends, best friends, worst friends and maybe even still strangers.

Members of the third group of Katimavik participants to pass through Minden pose before one of the children's tire swings they constructed at Rotary Park. The participants include, from the left, Mike Fraser of Port Elgin, Ontario, Mathieu Pinard of Chomedey Laval, Quebec, Josee Fontaine of Granby, Quebec, Stephen Huff of Deep River, Ontario, Marianne Collier of Nelson, British Columbia, Marian Jones of Prince George, British Columbia, Misti Graeper of Salmo, British Columbia, Kim Hatcher of St. Foy, Quebec, Terry Ovenden of St. Catharines, Alix Monosiet of La Salle, Quebec and group leader Scott Moody.

We've met so many people in these past 9 months - post office clerks, storekeepers, flight attendants, participants past and present, group leaders, work supervisors and sponsors, mayors, councilmen, doctors, nurses, newspaper reporters and photographers, billeting families, etc., etc.

If we had a quarter for all the people we've met, we'd be rich. But richer are we for having met and known them and experiencing Katimavik

A good idea

Haliburton County has a great deal to offer visitors. That fact has been proven many times over each summer as area lodges, resorts and cottages fill with visitors.

While the winter has not proven to be as attractive as the summer months, in the last decade or more, a definite growth in the popularity of the "off-season" has been demonstrated. The extensive trail network catering to snowmobile enthusiasts has added significantly to that growth.

The same could be said for cross-country skiing, except for the lack of trails and organization. That void may soon be filled.

This week the Haliburton County Nordic Trail Association and other interested parties approached the Ontario government with a proposal to integrate the existing fragments of cross-country trails into a network some 75 kilometres long. The proposal would allow the trail system to be used for world class skiing events and as a training facility for Canadian teams. These activities will mean important publicity for the Haliburton Highlands and will enhance the attractiveness of this area as a winter recreation locale.

But perhaps, more importantly, such a facility will add to the service the area offers to visitors.

Lodge to lodge skiing, trails of varying difficulty and numerous access points will ensure the slogan adopted by the Haliburton

Highlands Chamber of Commerce describing this area as "the cross-country ski capital of Canada" is in fact true.

Much of the success of this program will depend on the endorsement of the provincial government. Initial reports from those who took the proposal to Toronto are favourable. We hope that interest is sustained and the success of the idea is ensured by the province's participation.

Teachers' efforts appreciated

- by John Eakins -

Each week I sit down and prepare this Queen's Park Report. I try to give a general view of what is happening at the Legislature and to keep you informed of bills and resolutions before the House. It is easy to sit behind a desk, send out written material, and then say the people are being informed. However, the dialogue must be a two-way street; and therefore there must be an opportunity for groups, organizations and individuals to meet their Member and have input.

A meeting to do just that took place last week with members of the teaching profession representing the various affiliates of their association. I want this dialogue to be continued and expanded, for there is much for me to learn and know about their concerns and aspirations. The meeting was helpful to me, for while we have an official critic in the Legislature for Education, Colleges and Universities, I was able to learn and expand from talking to those 'close to home'.

I am impressed with the quality of our people engaged in the teaching profession. They work longer hours and assist in more projects than they are given credit for. But to do the job, and to accept their increasing responsibilities, they must be given the tools, and their work must be more clearly understood.

This leads me to say that those who serve in elective office in whatever capacity, and as individuals, all have an obligation to keep themselves and others well informed.

This means that as citizens we should attend meetings of council, school boards, and other boards and commissions elected or appointed. It has been my experience that few people bother to attend and see how their tax dollar is spent, and not wait until election time to express concern.

In most jurisdictions, boards of education receive the largest share of the tax dollar. I wonder how many attend their regular meetings? They are open to you to attend and I hope you will be encouraged to do so. It is helpful for elected people to know of your interest. That is why I encourage everyone I meet to visit our Legislature and hopefully feel a little closer to understanding the decision making process.

And of course, like our teachers, I can take the opportunity to outline a Member's working day, so you will better appreciate that it is not a 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. working day with several months to loaf around.

My sincere appreciation to our teachers' representatives for showing the initiative. I look forward to further meetings, and also to meet with other professions, groups, organizations and individuals. Dialogue is a two way process, and I must do my part.

Editor:

The Haliburton County School Board's review of the new direct access limitation policy in their March 27 meeting only reinforces my concern that individuals or delegations should not be represented at Board meetings by committees.

In a lengthy conversation with the Board Chairman in February, I detailed my concern over this new policy with examples of past committee presentations that can only be described as biased to support a position the Board had already taken. Not only does it appear that these arguments were not presented in my absence, but the Chairman conveniently changed her meaning of the awkwardness the Board felt in dealing with delegations, from the emotional aspects of some presentations as we discussed, to merely mean overcrowding of the meeting room. I would point out that this policy applies to individuals as well as small delegations too so why the concern about overcrowding?

The Board's apparent desire for less "formal" presentations at the committee level is, to say the least, a vague excuse for imposing such a restrictive policy. This publicly elected body must be accountable and directly accessible to parents and ratepayers.

The statement that this new policy will "speed up the process" is not necessarily accurate. Committees do not have established meeting times and so must be scheduled around availability of all parties concerned. This scheduling problem may lead to further delays for delegations being cleared for inclusion on the agenda of the next Board meeting. Also, unless the Board is in the habit of rubber stamping committee proposals, I cannot see how the process is necessarily speeded up.

Ironically, although the Board discussed this policy in the March 27 meeting, at that same meeting they apparently chose to ignore it by allowing a direct presentation by a group home operator. This suggests that the Board will selectively invoke this policy when it is convenient and to their benefit.

Gallery features five artists

Varied and versatile best describes the exhibition being held at the Agnes Jamieson Gallery. Five artists, members of the Three Island Art Association, have joined together to put on a show that will continue throughout the month of April.

At Thursday night's opening, Emily Skinner, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, introduced the artists to the gathering. Frank and Maureen Gough are painters who have lived near Sturgeon Point for the past ten years. Frank, a native of Birmingham, England, is a self taught painter who employs several mediums in his landscapes. Maureen, whose background is in television and theatre, has been painting since the age of eight. Both artists enjoy the freedom of being able to paint for themselves rather than others and find the countryside near their home an ideal setting for their landscapes. Their work has been exhibited throughout Victoria and Haliburton Counties.

Bett Fairbanks, born in London, England, lived in Rhodesia for fifteen years before moving to Canada. She paints in a variety of styles and mediums and her subjects range from portraits to whimsical interiors to subdued waterfronts. Her technical skills are obvious as is her sense of humour.

Karl Illini, who held a one-man show at the gallery in October, has also offered a diversified collection of his work. Whether it is an intimate study of a child, a watercolour of a farmhouse done in a traditional style, or his own unique medium, Illini's Tangential Prismatic, his paintings offer proof of his versatility and originality.

In addition to the paintings hung throughout the gallery, a large collection of pottery is on display. This diverse collection, the work of potter Magda Higgins, includes dinnerware, wall hangings, chimes and animal figurines. Many of her creations are multi purpose and show a strong sense of colour and style.

The exhibition of the Bobcaygeon area artists continues until April 28.

The log interior of the Agnes Jamieson Gallery provides a rustic niche for the brightly decorated pottery of artist Magda Higgins. Five Bobcaygeon area artists are featured at the gallery this month in a wide ranging exhibition of paintings and crafts.

from the chamber

A recent bulletin issued by the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development states Canada's economy is heading into its best year since 1976, with the rate of expansion expected to be 5% in real terms during 1984 - Ontario with a real growth rate of 3%, will figure largely in this improved overall expansion.

The report states the growth will be fed by increased consumer spending, a rebuilding of business inventories and a strong market for Canadian exports to the United States.

In its comments on the Canadian economy the O.E.C.D. predicts that recovery from the worst post-war recession will continue during the coming months.

In the year ahead Canada and the United States are expected to lead the rest of the industrialized world, posting better growth rates than the European economies and Japan.

Ontario land use planning guidelines

A report has been published by the Ministry of Natural Resources outlining ideas on future development in Ontario of minerals, parks, forests, tourism and fishing. This report took 10 years of research and is a first in Canada.

The guidelines are detailed inventories of 42 of the Ministry's 47 districts, and covers natural resource information, as well as an outline of future proposal for their most efficient use.

Among recommendations contained in the guideline are creation of 155 provincial parks, including 6 wilderness, 35 natural environment, 25 waterways, 74 natural reserve, 12 recreational and 3 historical parks.

Regulations covering 6 wilderness parks already have been approved by the Ontario Cabinet.

The guidelines also take into account the economic significance of existing tourist operations and the potential for expansion.

Also clarified are Ministry policies on recovery of aggregates - sand and gravel - thus providing greater flexibility for future management. The guidelines will not apply to private land, still subject to Municipal controls and the Planning Act.

Copies of the guideline are available from the "Ministry of Government Services, Publications Services Section, 5th Floor, 880 Bay St., Toronto, M7A 1N8". Cost is $5.00 (payable to Treasurer of Ontario) for each subject district covered."

Printing

In the past the Chamber of Commerce office has offered a printing service to its members and the general public at a very low price. Because of the hours involved in providing this service and the state of our antiquated equipment, we have decided to discontinue the service. I think you will agree that the time and money spent administering this service can be better spent in tourism promotion.

Board meeting

Our next board meeting will take place on April 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the Lloyd Watson Centre at Wilberforce. Please plan to attend and bring a friend.

Winter accommodation guide

Spring has just arrived and already we are thinking about our Winter Accommodation Book. In fact we are doing more than thinking, we have already set our deadlines. Prices will be discussed at our board meeting on April 26. In May we will be calling you for your advertisements. Printing will take place in July for August distribution. We will hand out as many as possible while the tourist is still in our area. The marketing theory is to get to your customer while he still remembers what a great time he had in the Highlands during the summer and interest him in coming back for a winter holiday.

This book will be prepared on time. So please have your advertisement ready when Walter Thomas calls. This year we can't afford to leave it until the last minute. If you are late, everyone loses.

Neighbourhood Watch is working

The Neighbourhood Watch program in the two villages is progressing as planned. Mark Schell, Chairman of the Haliburton program, and Gord Monk, the Minden chairman, are both confident the appropriate signs will be in place throughout the villages before the arrival of the summer visitors. All homes should be provided with the Neighbourhood Watch stickers by then as well.

Each community has been divided into zones with a leader in each. These Zone Leaders have subdivided their zones into smaller areas with a Block Captain in each. All participants are working together to complete a master map of each village. Each residence and business premises will be identified with a number. A copy of these maps will be posted at the Minden OPP Detachment and any resident requiring police assistance will be able to provide their precise location, for example, "I'm Neighbourhood Watch Zone 3, Number 17." This will enable our officer to know exactly which residence to respond to. Other emergency services will be provided with the maps as well.

One indication the program is working was provided by the Minden Division of the Ministry of Natural Resources. They recently conducted a training exercise in Minden Village whereby Conservation Officers took up night time surveillance in an effort to gain evidence on a make-believe poacher. The officers were reported to the OPP detachment four times by suspicious residents. In past years, no one has ever reported anyone taking part in these MNR training exercises.

JUSTICE FOR VICTIMS

LET'S CARE & SHARE

Community Justice Week in Ontario challenges you to care about victims.

Our justice system has a fine tradition of protecting offenders. However, we must all recognize that victims have rights and needs too.

Victims and their families need help at the time of crisis. They need information and guidance on how to use the justice system. And, they need support and care to deal with the aftereffects of crime.

The Ontario government has undertaken several initiatives to help victims. But personal and community involvement is essential.

Get involved. Participate in community-based crime prevention programs and services. Contact your local police or provincial court, or write to the Provincial Secretariat for Justice, Queen's Park, Toronto M7A 2A1.

Bus drivers will be told of student suspensions

Drivers of school buses in Haliburton County will be notified when students are suspended from classes.

The decision to notify drivers of the suspensions was made by the Board of Education at a meeting March 27 on the recommendation of Trustee Leroy Eager.

The trustee informed the board that a number of suspended students have been travelling to school on the buses, then spending the day in town before returning home on the bus at the end of the school day.

Trustee David Villard recommended that the operators should also be informed of the length of the suspensions to ensure that the drivers would transport students who have been readmitted to classes.

Under board regulations students must be readmitted by their parents to ensure that the parents are aware of the suspension and the reasons for the action.

Seat belts

The Board has decided not to change its position on the use of seat belts in school buses.

In November the Transportation Committee recommended that seat belts should not be installed in large buses at that time but that an investigation should be carried out to consider the feasibility of installing safety belts in vans.

The board was asked to reconsider its position in a letter from Dr. Bob Heyes of Haliburton. Dr. Heyes drew the board's attention to the stand taken by a number of Ontario physicians who had written a letter to the Globe and Mail supporting the use of seat belts in all school buses.

The board decided to notify the transportation committee of the concerns expressed in the letter but made no changes in the current policy.

Tenure extended

Dale Robinson's tenure as principal of the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School has been extended for three years. His present contract expires in June.

Group home

A proposal to open a group home near West Guilford was approved by the board.

John and Trish Slavik approached the board with their proposal to operate a residential treatment program in the Pine River home once owned by Kin Ark. The program, which will be open to mentally and physically handicapped youths between the ages of 16-24, will deal with the emotional and physical needs of the youngsters and will offer a number of different services including training in life-skills. Mr. Slavik explained that the youngsters would be in open custody under the Young Offenders Act and that the home would be staffed at all times by a residential youth worker or a parent.

Festival of Fun April 25

The fourth annual Festival of Fun will be held at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School on Wednesday, April 25 at 7:15 p.m.

The entertainers donating their time and talent are all local people. They are guaranteed to make the evening a special one.

The Festival is presented by the Haliburton Chapter of the Association for Children and Adults with Learning Disabilities. No admission will be charged, however, a collection will be taken to aid the A.C.A.L.D. Refreshments will be sold during the intermission. Everyone is invited.

According to the authorities, a car and $110 in cash was taken from a North Shore Road residence in Stanhope Township. The vehicle was involved in a single car accident a short distance away on the Airport Road. The accident destroyed the vehicle.

A resident nearby then reported that he scared off two individuals who were attempting to steal his vehicle.

A short time later a car was stolen from a residence on the Green Lake Road. It was observed by police on Norley Road and the two occupants were arrested.

Charged with the theft of vehicles and the cash were Timothy Bounsall, 19, of Haliburton and Jamie Austin, 16, also of Haliburton.

The matter is being investigated by Constable Al Bibby.

Stolen truck

Police are searching for a two tone green pick-up truck which was stolen from a Minden parking lot Saturday evening. They believe the 1976 Ford model truck was abandoned in the area and are asking area residents to call if they see a vehicle matching this description.

Budget 84 is designed to allow us to capitalize on this climate and to provide the economic opportunity and security all Canadians seek.

a homeowner or homebuyer

a worker

Greater Pension Security

Women, senior citizens and farmers in particular, will benefit from increased pension security. New pension legislation will allow all Canadians better opportunities to save for their retirement.

Farm Sale - Tax Savings

In order to encourage the continuation of family farms, new legislation will be introduced that will help farmers to provide for their retirement adequately.

The Mortgage Rate Protection Program

This program will be introduced to enable homebuyers and homeowners to buy protection against extraordinary increases in mortgage rates.

$150 Million Reduction in Federal Taxes for Small Business

The net result of simplification of small business tax laws, as well as new initiatives and provisions for growing small businesses, will mean a tax saving for small and medium sized businesses of some $150 million.

Profit Participation

Employee Profit Participation Plans will assist Canadian workers and managers to build a more productive and competitive economy. The budget proposes to encourage gain sharing with a special tax credit that would be shared between employers and employees.

Novice

The Minden Novice team made it to the championship round in a tournament March 31 in Fenelon Falls, but was unable to defeat the Bancroft entry in the final game. The team came away with two wins and a loss in the all-day event.

In the opening game, they defeated the host team, Fenelon Falls, by a 4-3 margin. Jason Scarlett was on the mark throughout the game and tournament, scoring all of the Minden goals. Two of his goals in the first game were unassisted while Rhys Gray assisted on one and Keith McKelvey and Jarrett Campbell assisted on the other. Jason's puck handling saved the day for the Minden team as they went into the final period behind 3-2. He notched the tying and winning goals. Todd Scarlett was in goal for Minden.

In the second contest, Minden blanked Bobcaygeon 4-0. Jason Scarlett scored all four goals, all unassisted.

In the final game,

Bancroft took a commanding lead in the first period with four goals and added another in the second frame before Jason scored unassisted. He added Minden's only other goal of the game in the third period with the assist going to Chris Todd. Final score Bancroft 6 - Minden 2.

Thanks

Her effort in compiling details, cajoling game reports from the team officials and keeping us posted on regular season and tournament action is greatly appreciated.

Rails' End features local artists

The arts are alive and well and flourishing in the Highlands. This was apparent as the Rails' End Gallery opened an exhibition of the works of seven Haliburton County artists on Wednesday evening.

As an added attraction the gallery is also featuring the paintings and prints of the Markham based artist Sheila Maki.

The seven local artists were on hand at the opening to discuss their work with a large group of well-wishers.

Deborah Bates from Haliburton displayed a number of her pen and ink drawings of the wildlife and flowers native to this area. Mary Wallace, who is well known for her batiks, chose a number of her paintings for the show. Her watercolours feature scenes of the countryside and homesteads of the county.

Charles O'Neil from Haliburton has also chosen the rustic beauty of the Highlands as the subject of his watercolours.

Michael and Sharon Butz

from Blue Hawk Lake are professional jewellers who work with rare metals and precious stones. The pendants, earrings and rings that they have displayed are not simply pieces of jewellery but are finely detailed, miniature works of art.

Barbara Peel from Haliburton is a skillful artisan in the ancient art of pottery making. She has combined function and beauty in creating jewellery boxes, vases and bottles from clay.

Another traditional craft is represented in the handwoven garments created by Judith Chapman from Mountain Lake. A member of the Ontario Handweaver's Guild, Judith has perfected her craft over a period of nine years. Her skill as a weaver is the result of a great deal of painstaking work and experimentation with difficult techniques.

The leather goods on display are the works of Ellen James of Blairhampton. Ellen is noted for her custom made leather and deer skin jackets. She has chosen a number of hand tooled cases and belts for the exhibition as well as several of the leather teddy bears that have become her trade mark.

The modernistic paintings and prints of Sheila Maki are more contemporary than the works of the local artists but the mood created by the display tends to compliment the more traditional styles. Her silk screen prints and acrylic and mixed media paintings are composed of a balanced series of curved lines laid over a pastel background. The large canvasses are suggestive rather than realistic and create a soothing environment.

Both exhibitions will be on display at the gallery until April 28. On the last day of the show, beginning at 2 p.m., Sheila Maki will be present to discuss her work and show slides of the landscapes that have inspired her.

Artist and visitors mingled during the opening of a new show at the Rails' End Gallery in Haliburton Wednesday evening. The show features the work of seven county artists as well as a display of paintings by Sheila Maki. The show continues until April 28.

Stanhope cake decorating course popular attraction

Stanhope Township's Bicentennial celebration program got underway when the first of a number of events was initiated on April 5.

Under the direction of Councillor Ann Barker, assisted by Pat Bain, Mary Lawr, Anna Barry, and Lee Ann Barker, a group of 27 participants twelve years of age and older, male and female, began receiving instruction in the art of cake decoration.

This class is free to participants since the ladies are volunteering their time and talent and the use of some of their equipment. Other equipment needs have been provided by funding from the Ministry of Municipal Affairs plus municipal support via the Feasibility Study Committee.

The program will teach the students the fine points of cake decoration and will deal with the techniques of icing, sugar molding, colour, flowers and lettering. Ginger bread castles will be dealt with as the course progresses.

The interest shown by the young people was a surprise to the organizers who found much encouraging enthusiasm displayed by the students.

Classes are to be held every Thursday evening commencing at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ann Barker. The course will run from April 5 to May 3 then will resume in September.

A display of the students' work will be a feature of Stanhope Day on July 28. Other events are being planned as part of the Bicentennial celebration and will be announced as arrangements are firmed up.

Farmers plan test plot

by Ernest Hills

On March 20 the Farmers Association held a very successful meeting dealing with the subject of test plots, with a view to establishing an on-going program in which new varieties and methods are tested in the areas of pasture management, grain and forage crops, as well as market garden varieties of vegetables.

Of particular importance is the follow-up by the respective committees, and the reporting back to the membership on test plot results, thereby enabling each farmer to evaluate the productiveness of his/her operation against the test results.

Carm Hamilton, area agricultural representative, led the discussion with an explanation of how best to structure a test plot study in order to most accurately determine a comparative analysis of crop studied. Godfrey Tyler, as chairman of the test plot committee, introduced plans for the administration of the study. Godfrey himself will oversee, evaluate and report on field crop studies, while Casey Cox will administer pasture management programs, and Bill Elliott will handle the market garden aspect of the test plot program.

Some signatures were obtained by each of the committee leaders for their respective programs, from the 44 members in attendance. Godfrey Tyler has done an outstanding job in promoting and creating an enthusiasm around the test plot program, as indicated by the excellent turn-out for the meeting.

As a follow-up to a most successful meeting, on the 21st of March the fund raising committee held a pot luck supper and penny auction at the Gelert Community Hall. A full house enjoyed a delicious repast and had a hilarious time in participating in the penny auction. The success of the 'farmers hop', to be held in September, is now assured, as no one will want to miss Cliff Duffy doing the 'Gelert grove' in the magic dancing shoes he won at the penny auction.

Our sincerest thanks go out to Bob Hollobon, John and Betty Lonsdale, and the entire fund-raising committee for a tremendously enjoyable evening.

Congratulations go out to those in attendance at the Lloyd Watson Memorial Centre, on March 27, and the people of Wilberforce, in particular area farmers, as organizers received the necessary mandate to establish the Wilberforce Agricultural Society and put into motion the necessary ingredients for a second

County fair for Haliburton.

April 28th will be a busy day for some of the membership, as a group will be touring the area on behalf of the 4H program, visiting Wilberforce, Haliburton and Norland at different times during the day. The purpose is to promote the 4H program, search out new and prospective leaders, and to meet with some of the young people who would like to actively participate in one of the three 4H programs undertaken. They include 4H goat and swine clubs, and a 4H horticultural club, so if you are interested look for a time and place in your area.

On the evening of April 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the Wilberforce United Church Hall, the Haliburton Highlands Goat Society will be holding their annual meeting and election of officers. Anyone interested is always welcome.

Finally, the Haliburton Highlands Goat Society is pleased to announce that

Mrs. Holly Furber, who wrote the text for the Independent Study Program on dairy goats for Guelph University, will be conducting an all-day seminar on Saturday, May 12 in the Kinmount Legion Hall. Cost to members will be $3, non-members are asked to pay $6. Lunch will be provided, and in the evening everyone is invited back for a pot-luck supper and penny auction. For further information contact Sharron Greer at 286-1073 or myself, Ernie Hills at 488-2784.

Home Support celebration

by Marie Wallace

Haliburton County Home Support Services is celebrating its fourth anniversary, with a noon luncheon and afternoon program on Friday, April 27 at the PineStone Inn and Country Club, located on Highway 121, near Haliburton Village.

A special invitation is extended to all our 'Snowbirds' volunteers who have returned from the south. You will be brought up to date on the progress of the programs of Home Support, such as: Meals on Wheels, Transportation, Friendly Visiting, Home Help, Wheels to Meals, and Fone-a-Friend.

Our guest speaker, Doris McCann, was responsible for the formation of this organization and worked for over a year getting it established and funded. Doris and her husband, Dick, have been 'Snowbirds' this year and we will be glad to have them back with us soon.

Sinclair Russell and his friends will provide the music and fun.

If you would like to attend this luncheon and afternoon program, please call the Home Support Office at 457-2941 and make your luncheon reservation which will cost $4.00. (If over 150 people register we will arrange an early supper at 4:45 p.m. so that we can accommodate everyone) Come and bring a shut-in with you!

Did you know?

by Bambi Gilder

Did you know ... that there is a telephone referral service that will help you deal with Ottawa?

If you have a problem with the federal government, (and who hasn't these days) there is a service in Ontario that could help you without costing you money for long distance calls to Ottawa. The Canada Service Bureau is offering a telephone referral service to make the federal government more accessible to people, regardless of where they live in Ontario and will connect you with the proper department, agency or ministry in Ottawa at no charge. If you live in the 807 or 705 area codes, call 1-800-461-1664. If you live anywhere else in Ontario, dial 1-800-268-7207.

This bureau would prefer to know a little bit about the problem to ensure the number they have is the correct one. The service is offered in both English and French and operates weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Please keep in mind that your Haliburton County Information Centre is here to help people of all ages by answering your questions regarding health, social, governmental and environmental subjects or by quickly referring you to the appropriate resource. We are located in the Drag River Municipal Building (across from Emmerson Lumber) in Haliburton. Drop in or give us a call at 457-2733. Our office is open Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

And remember, you will never know the answer, until you ask the question.

Ontario Small Claims Courts

They're often called the "people's courts." When you're involved in a dispute with someone, you don't need to have your problem wrapped in red tape or legal language. You simply want justice. And simple justice is what Ontario's Small Claims Courts are all about.

They'll settle claims involving up to $1,000. And they'll do it with a minimum of fuss and bother. You probably won't even need a lawyer.

Well readers, a beautiful sunny morning, the weather man is giving. It makes one feel that life is worth living. As I write this letter we welcome Ina McGuire back from hospital, we hope feeling much better. Some of our residents are still affected by the flu, feeling kind of weak and awfully blue. What about the place where they never change their sack and little streams of alcohol comes trickling down the rocks.

The service in the chapel Sunday night, Rev. Burgess took his message from 1st Timothy, Chapter 1, verse 15. "This is a faithful saying and worthy of all accepting. That Jesus Christ came into this world to save sinners."

Our administrator has gone on a two week holiday, he knows his children will be real good when he is away.

Monday down at fun and fitness Ada Shorter won the game we played, for all of us to witness.

Tuesday morning Rev. George Elliott of Minden Anglican Church, conducted a real impressive service, in the chapel this lovely April day. Faithful Fred Ballard came with music to play.

They say the sap is running these bright sunny days. And the syrup makers are sure making it pay.

Tuesday afternoon playing the quiz game which is a lot of fun, when the game had ended neither team had won.

Tuesday night Daryl Crowe came along and entertained us royally with music and song. Congratulations Daryl you made quite a sensation when you sang on CKLY Lindsay's radio station.

The movies this week were "The Heron Named Bill", "Fiddles, Wing, Ding Riddles" and "It's a Hobby for Harvey".

The ladies working in the craft room say that the rabbits haven't been producing very well, so they are making Easter bunnies, hoping they will sell.

We welcome Mrs. Shuyler back to us again looking quite fine, she has been in the hospital for quite some time.

Thursday afternoon the Haliburton United Church ladies came down to Hyland Crest, brought along a lovely lunch and were our special guests. They served it up so nicely too, we thank you for coming, a real nice thing to do.

Congratulations to Helen Lee who works here at Hyland Crest. Who won one hundred dollars at Rotary Bingo. We're all so pleased to see Grace Coburn our sing song leader here, received citation for faithful service from the Red Cross.

Rod Behue from the Kinsmen Club, Larry

Amyotte and Don Crowe came up here Thursday night, called out the bingo numbers and put on a real good show.

Friday morning down at fun and fitness playing bucket ball. Carrie Jones made the highest score of all.

What the heart cherishes
No vision and you perish,
No ideals and you're lost.
The heart must ever cherish

Some faith at any cost.
Some dream, some hope to cling to,
Some rainbow in the sky.
Some melody to sing to,
Some service that is high.

Zion United Church Choir, Carnarvon is presenting the Cantata For This He Came on Good Friday, April 20 in Carnarvon United Church at 9:30 a.m. and at Ingoldsby United Church at 7:30 p.m. The choir extends a warm invitation for all to hear this Easter message.

On Monday night 26 members attended the card party at Club 35. The high ladies score was Verna Sawyer and the high man was George Alsop. The lone hand winner was Walter Ackerblade. Olive Daniel was the lucky winner of the 50 - 50 draw. Other prize winners included Edith Russell, Dean Hodgeson, Bruce Cumming and Bill Cowen.

The Heritage Ball planned for this weekend sounds like it will be fun. Old time fashions will be the order of the day with appropriate decorations at the Community Centre. Everyone who attends will receive a photo, taken in a specially constructed set designed to look like an old fashioned drawing room. There still are some tickets available. Check the ad in this week's paper for more information.

Florence and Phil Robinson had company on April 3. They were delighted when her niece, Mrs. Paul Cockburn, and granddaughter Michelle dropped in for a visit.

Our sincerest sympathy to the family and friends of the late Mrs. Moss Minaker, of Lochlin, who passed away last week.

C.H.A.C.E. Place will be having a tupperware party April 12 with demonstrations and refreshments at 10:30 and 1:30, with door prizes. Also at C.H.A.C.E. Place on Saturday, April 14 from 10 - 2 there will be an anniversary party. Plan to attend these events.

Winners for the Thursday Card Party were as follows: Cribbage - Vera Ward and Cora Hewitt. Euchre - Lone hands on a cut - Hilda Harrison, Jack Weekes and Johann Beattie.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sears earlier this week were Sandra and Rick Moss and Logan of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Moore of Borden spent the weekend with the Birds and his parents before Dennis leaves on May 1 to go to Victoria. Dennis will board the Ou'Apelle and stay on the ship for 7 months, then he will return in June to pick up his wife.

Don't forget the children's movies on April 13 from 7:15 and 8:15 at the Library Cultural Centre.

We are happy to welcome home Mr. and Mrs. Angus Cameron of Norland, who have spent an enjoyable winter in sunny Florida.

We spent an entertaining evening in Lindsay Saturday at the Heritage Christian School's production of the musical "Annie". The show was exceptionally well done with a superlative performance from the young girl who starred in the title role. The show will be presented again this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

There are many signs of spring in our community. The robins are back, as are many of the Sno birds. But, you know winter is really over when they shut down the ice making plant at the arena. The switch was flipped Sunday evening following the last game of a weekend tournament.

This delightful poem was submitted by George Hewitt. His father wrote the poem in 1897. We think you'll enjoy it.

The Mistletoe Bough

The mistletoe hung in castle wall
The holly branch shone on the old oak wall
And the banon retainers were blithe and gay
And keeping their Christmas holiday
The baron beheld with a father's pride
His beautiful child young Lovell's bride
While she with her bright eyes seemed to be
The star of the goodly company.

I'm weary of dancing now she cried
Here tarry a moment, I'll hide, I'll hide
And Lovell be sure thou't the first to trace
The clue to my secret lurking place
Away she ran and her friends began
Each tower to search each nook to scan
And young Lovell cried Oh where dost thou hide
I'm lonesome without thee my own dear bride.

They sought her that night and they sought her next day
And they sought her in vain till a week passed away
In the highest, the lowest, the loneliest spot
Young Lovell sought wildly but found her not
And years flew by and their grief at last
Was told as a sorrowful tale long past.
And when Lovell appeared the children cried
See the old man weep for his fairy bride.
Oh the Mistletoe Bough.

At length an old chest that had long hid
Was found in the castle they raised the lid
And a skeleton form lay mouldering there
With a bridal wreath in her clustering hair
Oh sad was her fate in sportive jest
She hid from her lord in the old oak chest
It closed with a spring - and her bridal bloom
Lay withering there is a living tomb.
Oh the Mistletoe.

Igor: If you had a gun with only one bullet and a monster was coming at you from one direction and a werewolf from the other, which would you shoot?

Boris: I'd shoot the gun.

"How did you get that blow-out?"

"Ran over a pop bottle."

"Didn't you see it?"

"No. That kid had it under his arm."

What is the difference between zombies and darned socks?

A: One is dead men, the other is men-ded.

Q: What do you get when you cross a vampire with an Egyptian mummy?

A: A flying Band-Aid.

Q: How do you help haunted eggs?

A: Get an eggs-orcist (exorcist).

Q: Where did extinct animals go for the summer months?

A: To the dino-shore.

Hi kids! Here's another puzzle for you. Have fun.

Anna Movich recently celebrated her ninetieth birthday with her six daughters, three sons-in-law, fifteen grandchildren and their husbands, eight great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends. She has been a summer resident at Halls Lake for almost thirty years and on frequent weekends throughout those years. She played cards at Club 35 for many, many summers and still enjoys a game of cards with anyone who might care to join her. Up until the age of 85 years, Mrs. Movich was an avid ice skater on speed blades, along with her six daughters.

Greetings were received from many people including Ed Schreyer, Governor-General of Canada, Premier William Davis and Dennis Timbrell, M.P.

Mrs. Movich is very much looking forward to spending her usual summer at Halls Lake beginning next June where she still enjoys a swim and the paddle-boat.

CARD OF THANKS

A small tribute to the Stanhope Volunteer Firefighters: Some people are easily forgotten in our daily lives. I am a short time resident of Halls Lake (about a year). On different occasions, I have had the honour of meeting some of our volunteer fire fighters. I wish to comment on the response to an alarm on April 2, 1984 at 2:30 a.m. The fire unit was on the scene in approximately 7 to 10 minutes and a total of 16 men responded. Well, gentlemen, my hat is off to you for a job well done. As I know it takes longer sometimes in the city. Congratulations!

Mr. G. H. Pain
(Auxiliary OPP)

The family of the late Bertha Porter would like to thank all their friends and relatives for their kindness at this time of sorrow. Special thanks to the staff at Extendicare, Dr. Hartwick, Bud and Gala Stamp, friends who donated food, Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home. Your kindness will always be remembered.

The Porter Family

FERGUSON

Margery (Nee: Hill)

Margery Phillis Ferguson passed away suddenly at her winter home in Toronto on Saturday, March 24, 1984. Her husband, Dewar Ferguson predeceased her in 1973. Had this not happened, then, they would have been permanent residents of Haliburton. As it was, "Marge" spent every summer at their home in the Halls Lake area. They had purchased their house in 1958 on the banks of the Hawk River, which they renovated from a small log building to the beautiful home it is today, where the door has always been open for friends and neighbours to drop in for a cup of tea and a friendly chat. Many of her Toronto friends also became acquainted with Haliburton when they visited her on weekends or spent a vacation in summer.

Marge was born in England, and came to Canada as a young girl with her parents, her sister and brother, so she grew up in Canada and was in every respect a true Canadian. She identified herself with many popular causes. During the war she went to work at Massey Ferguson, and was one of the union builders which led to the formation of Local 439, UAW. She was among those who initiated the Housewives' movement for a million signatures to roll back prices. She was also a pioneer in building the Congress of Canadian Women, and was a member of the Voice of Women.

In earlier years in Haliburton, Marge, her husband "Fergie", and William Watson, Sr., were instrumental in seeking out amateur artists in the area to form the Highlands of Haliburton Art Group. This group held an exhibition three successive summers in Zion United Church Hall in the Village of Carnarvon. Later, when circumstances prevented them from carrying on, the treasury of the group was turned over to those in the town of Haliburton who were working to form what is now the Haliburton Guild of Fine Arts. She has always attended their exhibition each summer, taking with her any friends who might be visiting at the time. Both she and her husband gave scholarships to be awarded each year to a student of Haliburton High School.

Margery Ferguson was a tireless worker for Peace and against nuclear war. She was one of those who were successful in getting Metro Toronto Council to declare the City a nuclear weapons free zone.

Haliburton has lost a fine citizen with the passing of Margery Ferguson. She was a member of Club 35 at Halls Lake, and attended most of the social and cultural events in Stanhope Township. She was always ready to help those in trouble, and there are many Haliburton residents who found her a good friend in time of need.

She leaves her friend John Pauk, her sister Beryl of Scarborough, and brother Leslie of Vancouver.
